IN MEMORY OF CHARLEY WEST
OCTOBER 3, 1968

Our precious son from us is gone;
His voice of joy and laughter has been stilled.
His vacant place at home and school can by no one else be filled.

God took this precious one from us,
We must not ask him why;
But we will meet him some sweet day in heaven's home on high.

He suffered, oh, so many hours,
And it hurt so much to see him go,
But our will and God's will, are not the same you know.

He had so many, many friends;
They would be hard to count.
And he was such a jolly one
With everyone about.

He was so nice to everyone,
And especially to me.
Whenever he passed me, any time,
A hand waved out to me.

We often wonder why things must be thus and so; but just remember, in God's word, in time we all must go.

Beyond the setting of life's sun
When time will be no more;
We'll meet dear Charley in that fair land and live for ever more.

Foreword

The emphasis of the 1969 Ocotillo is on the school and all the elements that go into a good education. Teachers in action are pictured, for what good is knowledge without someone to impart it? Students and classes are used as division pages since they are a vital part of school life. Our instructional surroundings are also emphasized, for a good environment is conducive to learning. The playground and clubs are pictured because recreation is also imperative to an all-around education.

These are the elements that are emphasized in this 1969 Ocotillo. We, the Ocotillo Staff, hope that you enjoy this annual and its memories of the past school year.

SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

It is a pleasure for me to express my sincere greetings to the students of Dell City School and to the many others who will read and enjoy this yearbook. In years to come, this annual, like Pleasant memories, will become more valuable.

Students, as you go out into the world, remember this thought:

You have each been given a bag of tools,
A formless rock and a book of rules;
And each must make, ere life has flown,
A stumbling-block or a stepping-stone.

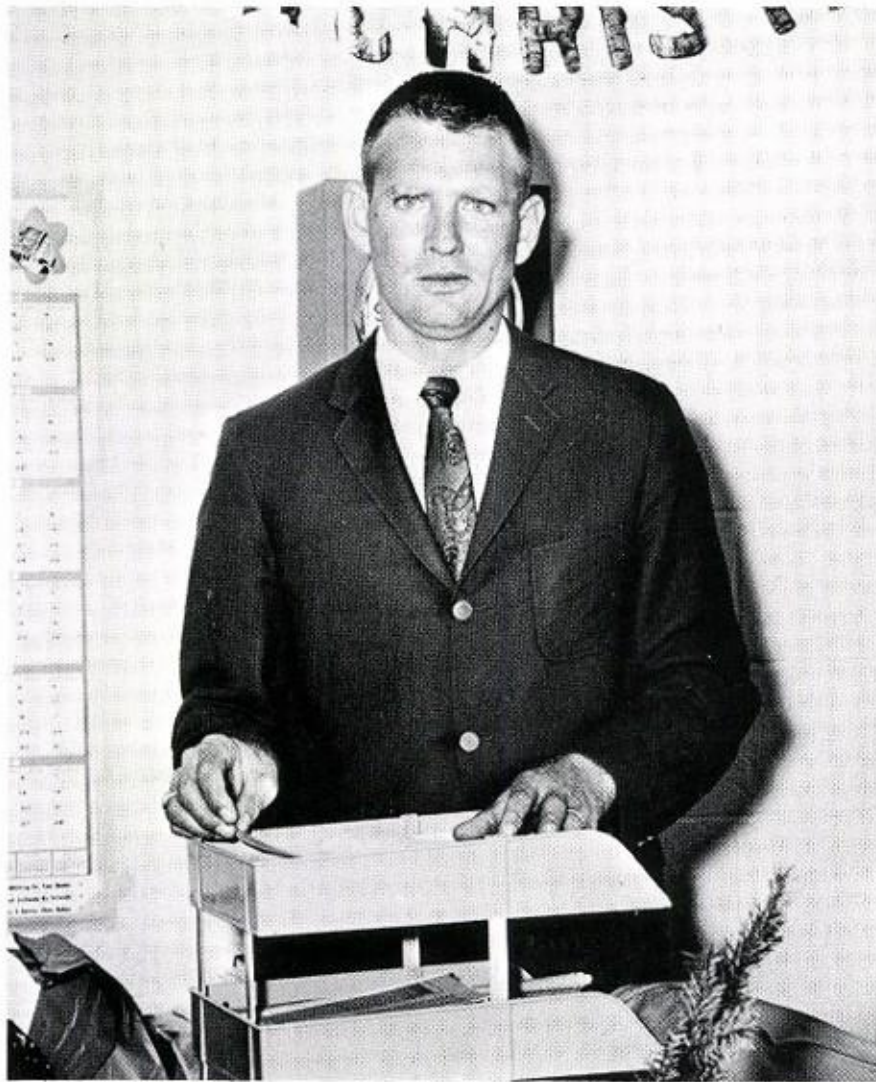

Congratulations, Seniors, on this edition of the OCOTILLO.

Sincerely,

Paul J. Morris

Superintendent of

High School Principal

To the Annual Staff and Sponsor:

As you wander through life's many gates, we hope memories of Dell City High can shine down upon you. Some will be bright and some will be gloomy. But as you tread down that long lonely pathway into tomorrow, we truly hope you have made the most of what has passed your way here at Dell City High School.

Congratulations to the Annual Staff and their Sponsor, Mrs. Karr, for a job well done.

Sincerely,
Edmund W. Wade

Elementary Principal

Congratulations to the Ocotillo Staff and Sponsor who have made this yearbook possible. You no doubt will look back in later years and enjoy looking at the book that will bring such happy and pleasant memories.

The FFA Grass Judging Team for this year was composed of Jimmy Foster, Kevin Lynch, John Slaughter, and Lindsay Snodgrass.

At the Annual Parent-Son FFA Banquet, Brent Snodgrass was presented the award for Outstanding Ag Student from Vic Choate, Area II President.

Ollie and J.P. Lewis provided the entertainment enjoyed by all at the Parent-Son Banquet.

The FHA has had a variety of projects this past year. For our community projects, we sent cookies to Vietnam, gifts to state and local hospitals, canned goods to orphans, and had our first annual FHA Banquet.

For fun we had our Halloween Party, Powder Puff Football Game, wool contest, Area II trip, and our FHA Week activities.

One of the best liked projects was when we moved from the smaller home-ec. building to our larger one, which we did ourselves, with some help from the ag boys.

FHA

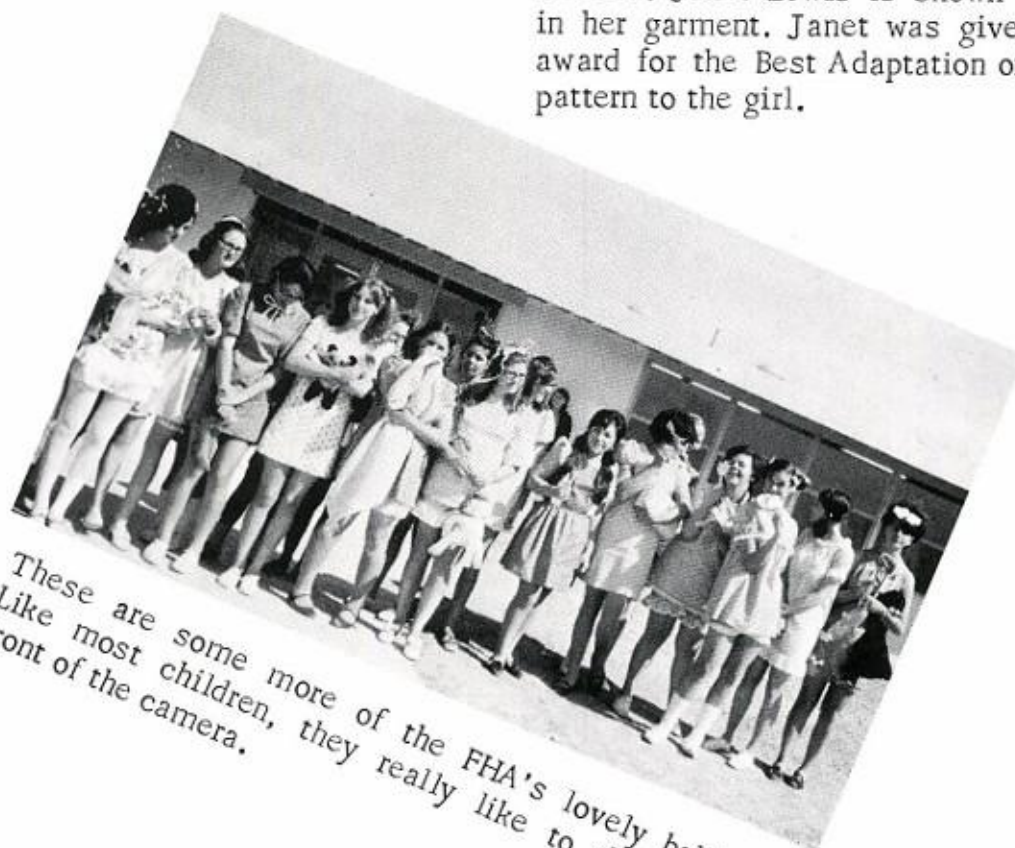

This was Baby Day during FHA week. On this day, all the FHA girls came to school dressed like babies or little girls, many complete with lollipops and teddy bears.

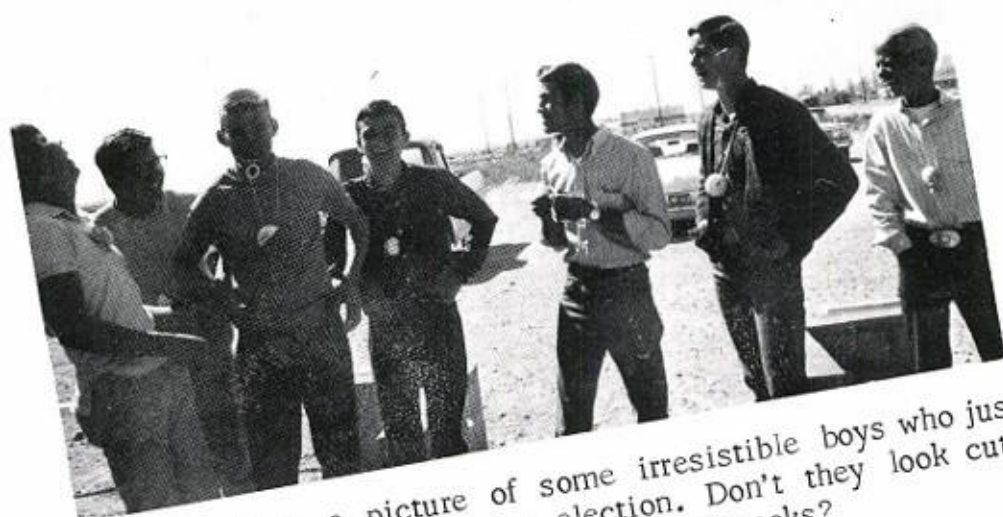

As one of the Home Ec. projects this year, many of the girls made wool garments and entered the "Make It Yourself With Wool" contest in Odessa. Janet Lewis is shown here in her garment. Janet was given an award for the Best Adaptation of the pattern to the girl.

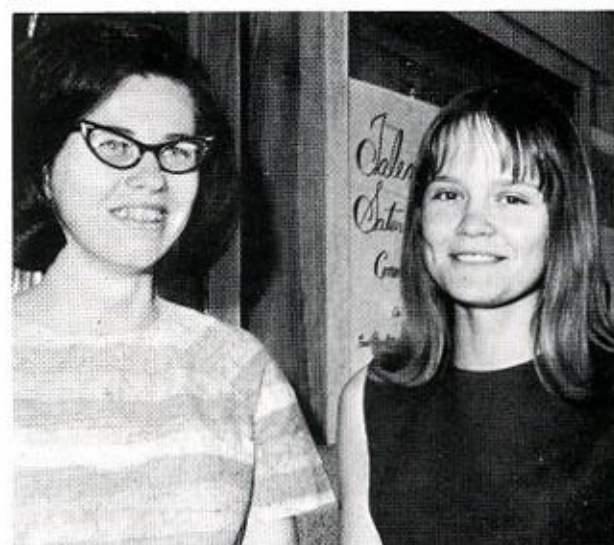

Barbara Brewer is shown here on FHA Baby Day. She seems to be having a bit of a struggle with one of the members of the "adult world."

These are some more of the FHA's lovely babies. Like most children, they really like to show off in front of the camera.

Here we have a picture of some irresistible boys who just couldn't resist "rigging" an election. Don't they look cute with their pacifiers and onions around their necks?

For the first time in the history of Dell City's Chapter of FHA, two members have obtained state degree. They are Joy Rasco and Winna Mae Dean.

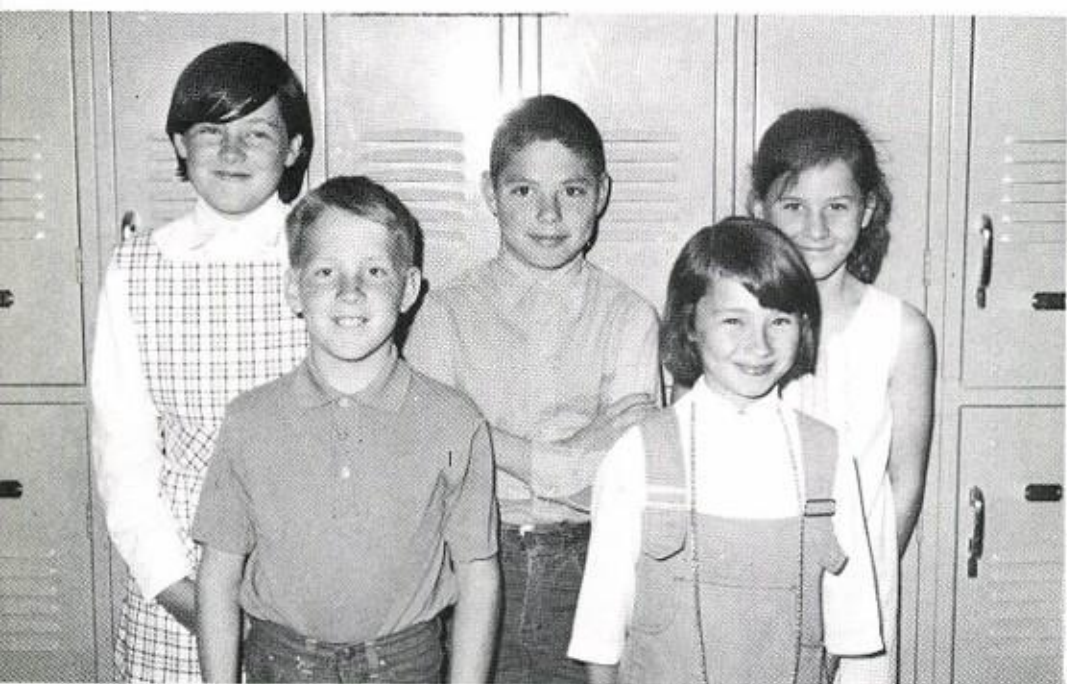

Interscholastic League Events

The Poetry Interpretation and Prose Reading contests are to train students to find meanings and communicate them. Gail O'Bannon won 2nd in Poetry and Eddie Rubio won 3rd in Prose.

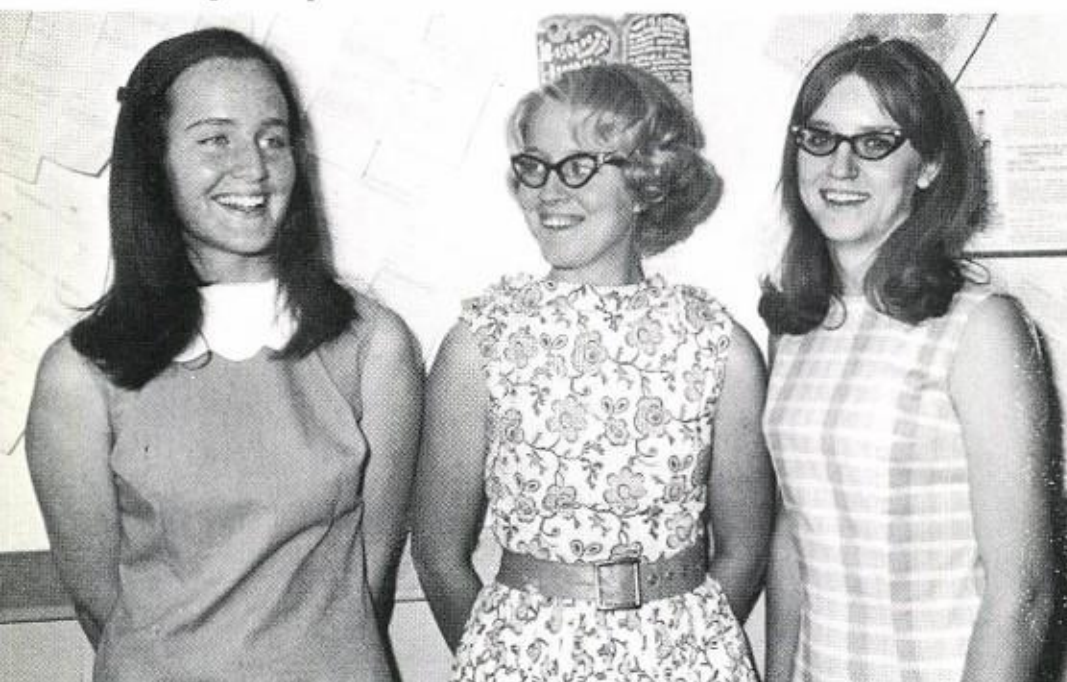

Lisa Gentry, Charles Elias, and Elizabeth Brewer represented Dell City in the Grade School Spelling Contest.

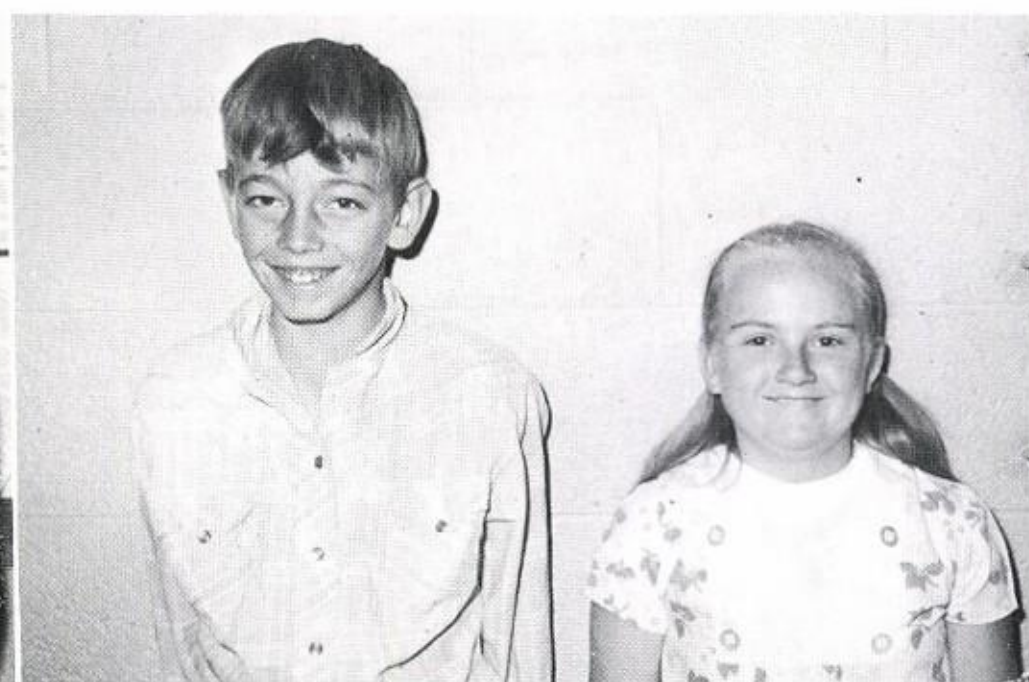

In the Picture Memory Contest Linda Lynch, Eddie Castillo, Sylvia Lee, Clarence Rasco and Laurie Lynch participated.

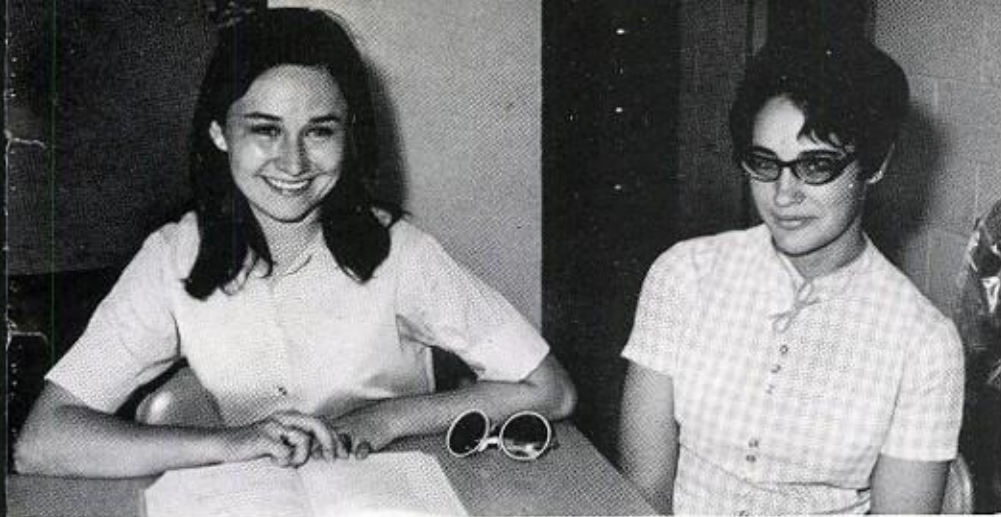

Joe Snow and Annette Hill placed 2nd in the Junior High Spelling Contest at Anthony.

Peggy Lynch, Janet Lewis, and Helen Lange entered the High School Spelling contest and Janet won 1st place.

Sandy Blunk and Brenda Gentry entered the Sub Junior Declamation and Brenda got 2nd place.

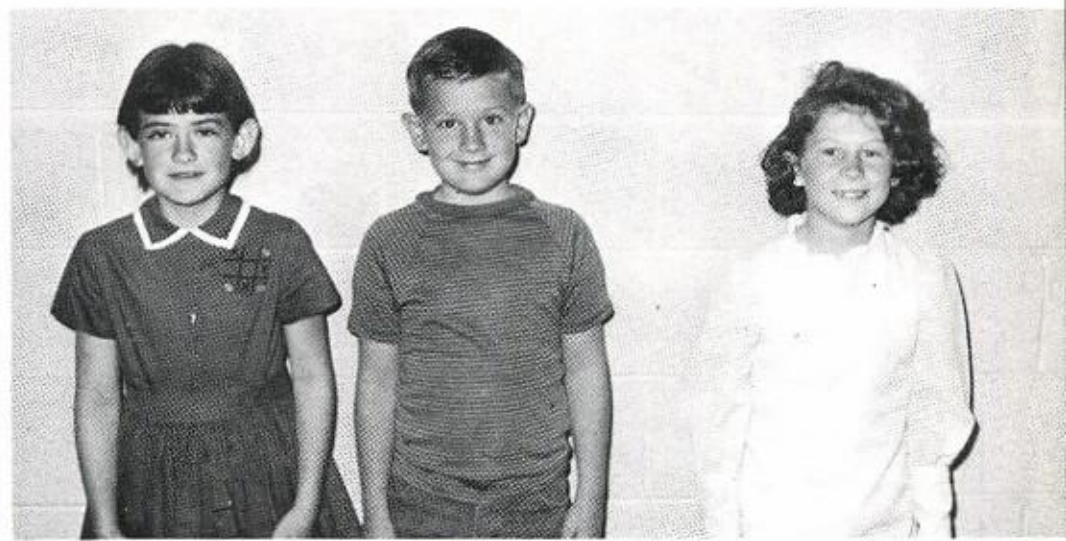

Dell City's representatives in the High School Number Sense were Anne Lynch and Mary Ziler.

Typing contestants were Brent Snodgrass and Barbara Brewer. Barbara won 2nd and participated in the Regional Contest.

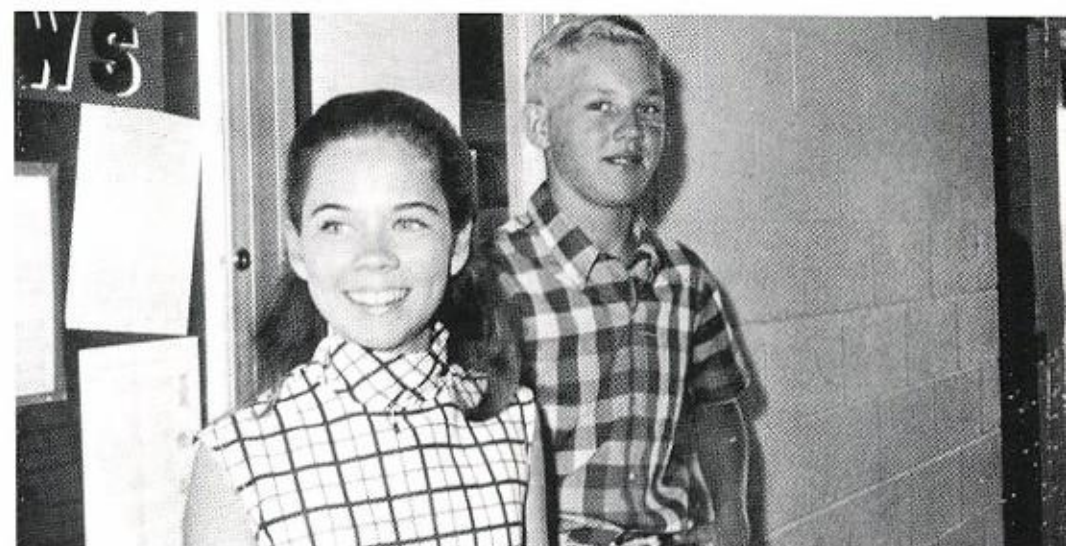

Actors in the One-Act Play were Eddie Rubio, Larry Barker, Janis Pritchett and Ollie Lewis. Tommy Brownfield, Kenny Pritchett and Trisha Gentry helped out on the production end. JoAnn Elias coached.

Janet Burgin, Kevin Nix and Debbie Foster entered Tiny Tot Storytelling. Kevin won 1st place.

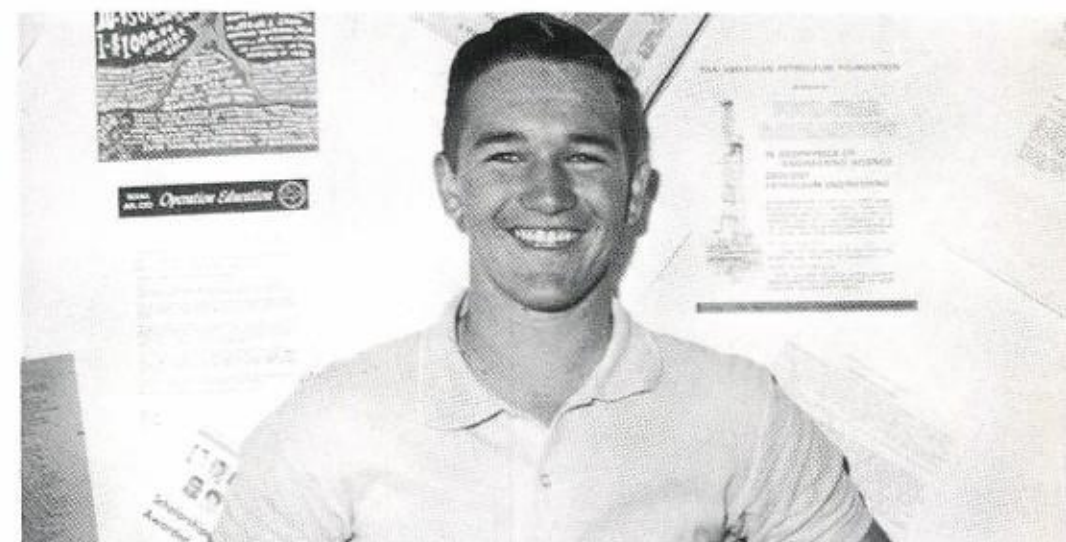

Joe Snow and Billy Elias were Dell City entrants in Junior High Number Sense.

In Jr. High Oral Reading, Dell City was represented by Kitty Lynch and Perry Brewer. Kitty came home with a blue ribbon.

Winna Mae Dean, Carol Lange, Sheryl Jones, Becky Dean and Kelli Gil entered the Ready Writing. Becky placed 3rd in Jr. High competition.

Larry Barker won 1st place in Boys Informative Speaking. He also got to go to Regional.

1968-69 Homecoming Queen

Our Homecoming Queen, Miss Ollie Lewis is a senior and vice president of the FHA. She is Senior Class Favorite, Miss Dell High and was voted Best personality. Amid all these activities she is also an honor student.

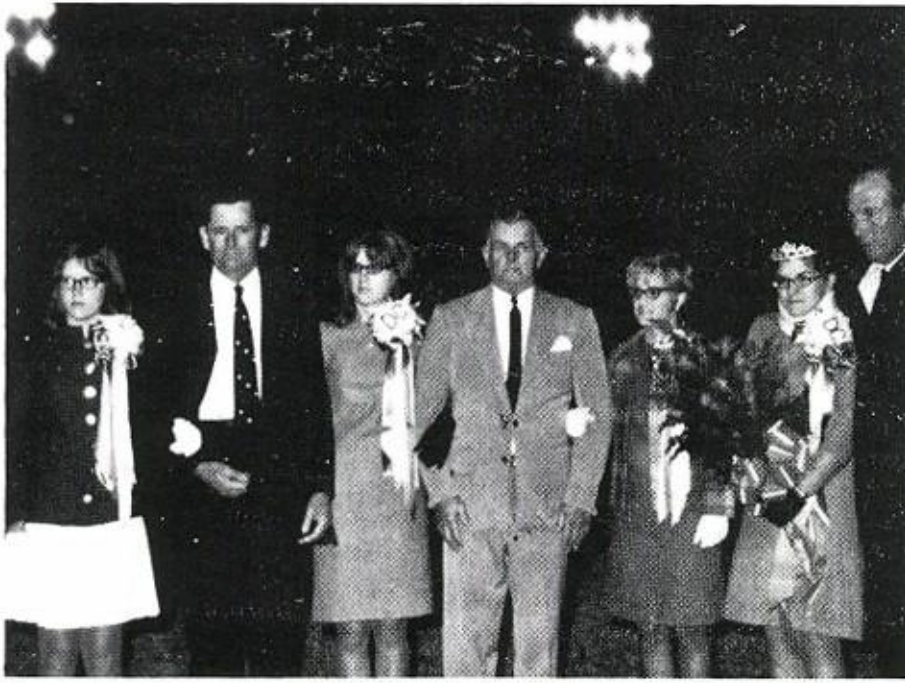

Football Sweetheart, Miss Patricia Gentry, a Soph. was also crowned as a part of homecoming activities.

Ollie Lewis on Homecoming night with her escort and brother, Mr. D.F. Lewis.

Homecoming

With the Homecoming bonfire in the background going up in flames, a group of Seniors watch the cheerleaders generate spirit before the game.

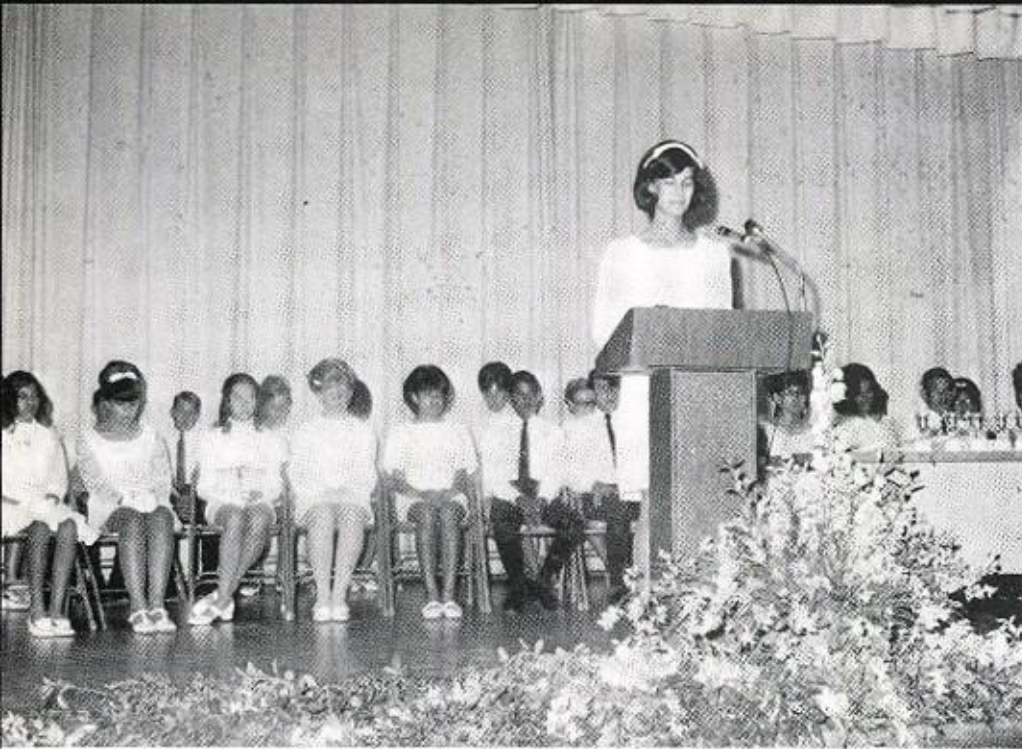

Our cheerleaders, Nonie Barker, Patricia Gentry, Helen West, and Anne Lynch, after a spirited yell, reflect moments of enthusiasm before the game.

Hoping the fire will grow with the sacrifice of a mighty senior, eager cougar fans add fuel to the fire. (This method could also be used to be rid of an unwanted classmate!)

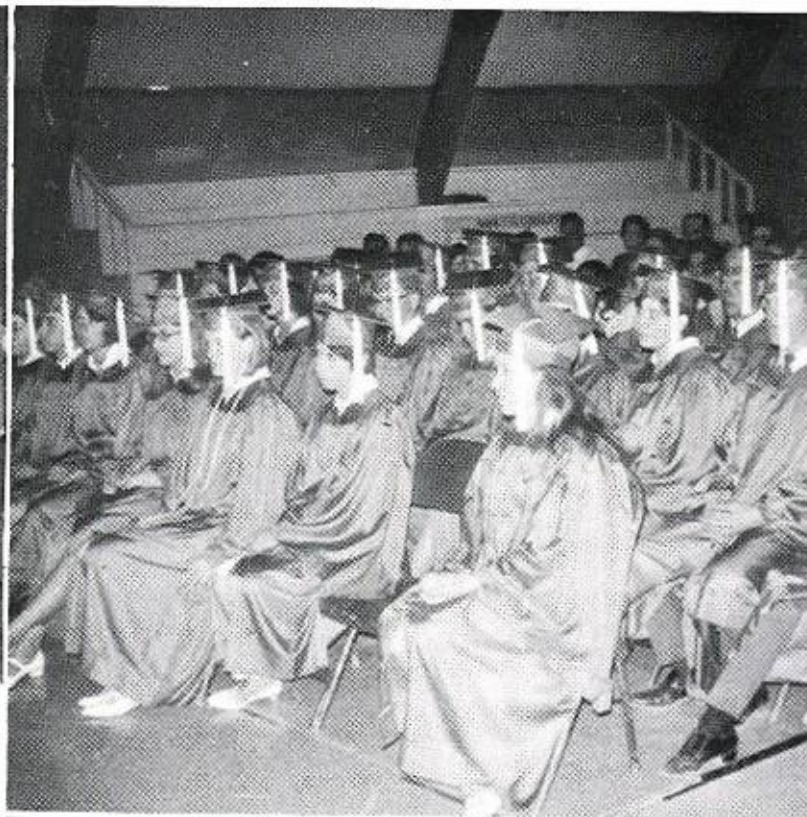

8th grade valedictorian, Kelli Gil, is shown as she delivers her farewell address.

Billy Elias, 8th grade salutatorian, welcomes everyone to Elementary Graduation. Billy spoke on the value of using time wisely, as Time was the theme for the evening.

Rev. Lloyd Benton, pastor of the First Baptist Church, delivered the Baccalaureate address in the gymnasium the Sunday before commencement.

Shown at Baccalaureate Services, are some quiet and thoughtful Seniors.

Senior class salutatorian, Sharon Gentry, delivers the welcoming address at High School Graduation, Monday, May 26th.

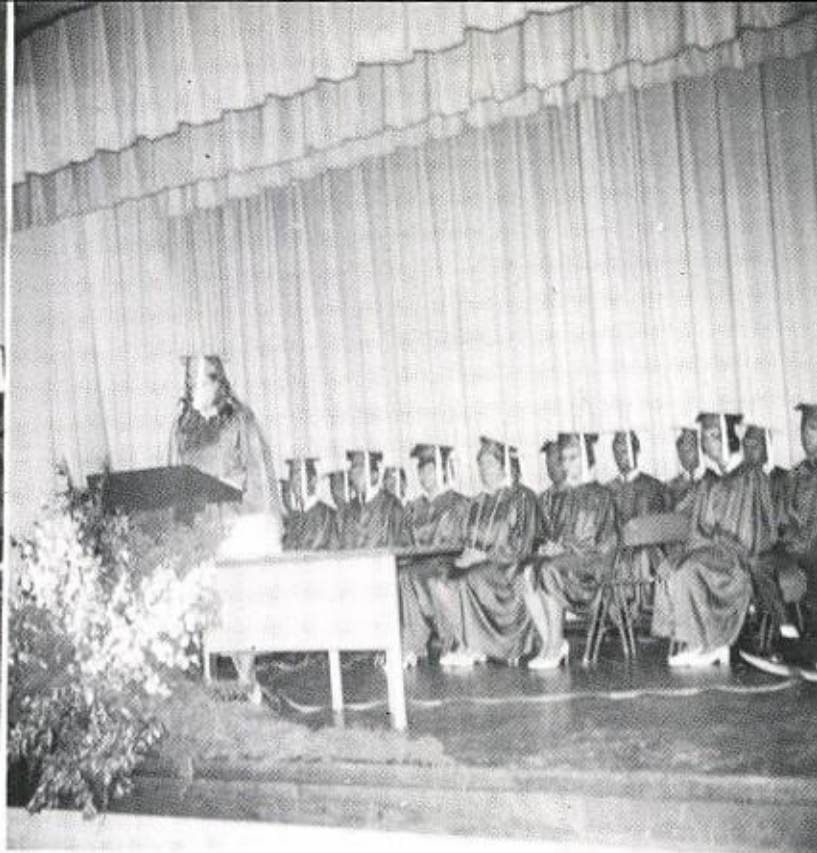

Senior class president, Steven Kasparian, gives his address at commencement.

Graduation

Superintendent, Paul Morris, presents outstanding Senior, Winna Mae Dean with still another award.

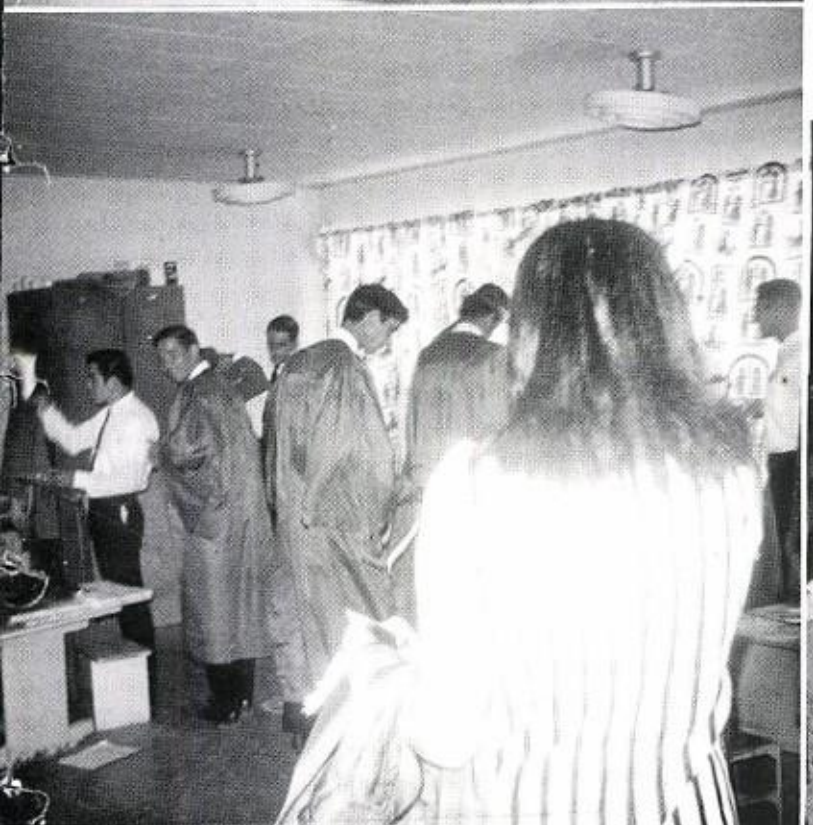

Ollie Lewis tells the audience a little of the history of the 1969 graduating class.

Winna Mae Dean gives her final address to the audience and to her classmates, as she delivers the valedictory.

No graduation is complete without leaving a little something behind as a remembrance. Here, Gaye Nell Brewer reads the will of each Senior.

It didn't take this bunch long to get rid of those robes of dignity and become ordinary teenagers again.

Jimmy and George just couldn't pass up one last chance to ham it up in front of the camera.

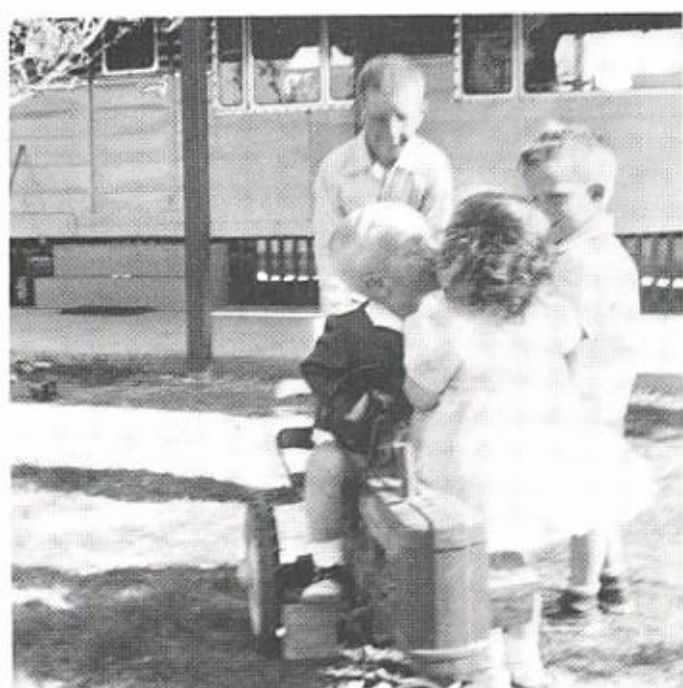

Jan Wood in a pep rally skit, has a hard time choosing which of these three suckers she wants.

Snapshots

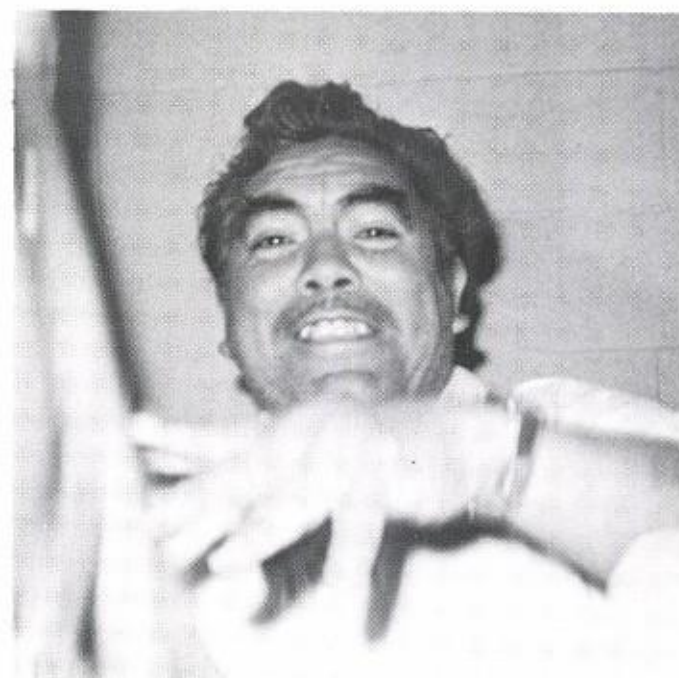

8th grade class officers for 1968-69 were Zana Switzer, Joe Snow, Billy Elias, Annette Hill, and Karen Brownfield.

Two Dell City High School students displayed a case of spring fancy at a very early age.

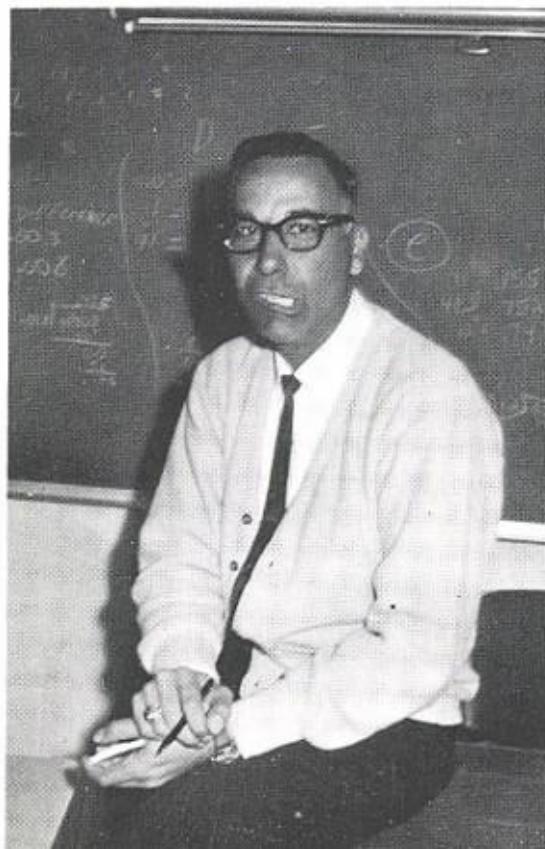

School custodian looks terrified, either at the thought of facing high school students another day or another day of work.

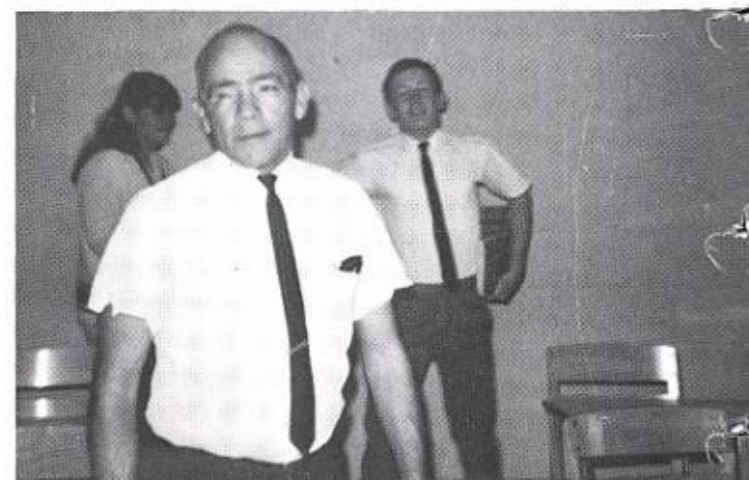

7th grade class officers for 1968-69 were Cathy Hill, Cindy O'Bannion, Mike Jones, and Mary Snow.

Mr. Gil looks the part of a typical high school teacher, as he snarls at his Senior Texas History class.

Coach Sturtz, followed by an ardent admirer, Robert Bavousett.

Short on down-payment

for the equipment you need?
Ask about Equity Financing!

Cash or trade-in is no longer your only possible route to modern machinery. Now, there's a third way to make your down-payment. It's called Equity Financing!

Keep in mind the equipment you now own has a market value. Under the John Deere Credit Plan, you can use this value (or equity) as all or part of your down-payment. No trade is required. For example, suppose you want to move up to a new tractor and still keep your old one. Instead of parting with the machine, you simply "trade in" its value.

Make sure you get financing as modern as the equipment you're planning to buy. See us for full details!
